Who is the Pope?

The pope, also known as the supreme pontiff (pontifex maximus), is the bishop of Rome, leader of the worldwide Catholic Church, and head of state representing the Holy See. Since 1929, the pope has official residence in the Apostolic Palace in the Vatican City, the Holy See's city-state enclaved within Rome, Italy. The current pope is Francis, who was elected on 13 March 2013, succeeding Benedict XVI.

Triregnum

Triregnum, also called the “tiara”. Recent popes have not, however, worn the triregnum, though it remains the symbol of the papacy and has not been abolished. In liturgical ceremonies the pope wears an episcopal mitre (an erect cloth hat).

Crosier

Crosier topped by a crucifix, a custom established before the 13th century.

ONSLIDE - Some things the pope has said.

The unjust distribution of goods persists, creating a situation of social sin that cries out to Heaven and limits the possibilities of a fuller life for so many of our brothers. Human rights are not only violated by terrorism, repression or assassination, but also by unfair economic structures that creates huge inequalities. This is what I want, a poor Church for the poor. I say that politics is the most important of the civil activities and has its own field of action, which is not that of religion.
